Year 1 consists of ten mandatory courses. In year two, two courses are mandatory, seven courses are professional elective courses and one is a general elective course. In year three, there is one mandatory course, four professional elective courses and one general elective course, along with work practice and the diploma seminar.